

A.P. AIR, INC WARRANTY INFORMATION

All AP Air agricultural, commercial and vehicle air conditioning replacement parts are warranted to be free from defective materials and/or workmanship for the period specified - from date of purchase. No labor or refrigerant allowance will be allowed for losses involved in the replacement of these parts. During the warranty period, parts determined by AP Air to be covered will be repaired or replaced at AP Air's discretion.

All warranties are to the installing owner only; a transfer of ownership will terminate the warranty. A copy of the dated original installation work order must be furnished with warranty claims, when requested. All warranty parts must be returned to AP Air for inspection before warranties are issued.

This warranty does not cover defects caused by customer neglect, incorrect application, wiring, alteration or repairs made outside the company's authorization.

This warranty is in lieu of any other warranty, whether expressed or implied.
